

ADAOCAN
607 Bayview Drive
Toms River, NJ 08753

ADAOCAN

Americans with Disabilities Act
Ocean County Action Network

*Invites You To Celebrate
The 20th Anniversary Of The Americans with Disabilities Act*

Keeping the ADA Alive In Ocean County

(Available in alternate format)

Place: American Legion
George P. Vanderveer Post 129
2025 Church Road
Toms River, New Jersey 08753

Date: Monday, July 26, 2010

Time: 11:30 AM to 3:00 PM

Buffet Luncheon

Key Note Speaker:

*William A. B. Ditto, Director
State Of New Jersey
Department of Human Services
Division Of Disability Services*

Guest Speaker:

*Santina Muha
Ms. Wheelchair New Jersey*

RSVP no later than Monday, July 12, 2010

For additional information call:

Ruth Fiedler 732-929-0027

If you need assistance please call:

Ruth Stack 732-678-5226

Every effort will be made to accommodate you.

Please complete this form, cut and mail to:

ADAOCAN

607 Bayview Drive
Toms River, NJ 08753

Name: _____

Address: _____

_____

Phone: _____

How many will be attending? _____

20th Anniversary

WHY THE COLOR RED

Every year, we will celebrate the anniversary of the ADA. Yes, we will wear red!! In human color psychology, the color red is associated with emotions that stir the blood, including anger, passion and love. It is also a symbol of courage and sacrifice. The Americans with Disabilities Act epitomizes these emotions; therefore, red is worn to commemorate the ADA.